Frequently asked questions

Why should I lodge a claim on-line when I still need to send the original bills/accounts?

When you lodge on-line, your information is clear and all parts of the claim is completed as an incomplete form cannot be submitted successfully. You can also keep a copy of your claim on your computer for future reference. Accounts/Bills need to be submitted to Allianz Global Assistance for verification and authenticity. Once the accounts have been approved, payment can be completed promptly.

Manual claims are often difficult to read and are incomplete. As a result Allianz Global Assistance needs to return the forms to the student, which means there will be a delay in obtaining the benefit.

How do I know where to find a Medical Provider that Direct Bills?

Visit www.oshcallianzassistance.com.au and go to the 'Student' menu and then click on 'Find a Doctor'. Choose your State and a list of direct billing centres will appear for your area. If you would like to nominate a medical clinic in your local area that may be interested in direct billing, please email Allianz Global Assistance at oshc@allianz-assistance.com.au We cannot guarantee that the medical provider will want to direct bill, but we will certainly try.

If I am having trouble completing the claim form, where can I obtain help?

Contact our OSHC team directly on 13 OSHC (13 6742) or see your local customer service representative.

What is the quickest way of obtaining my benefit?

- Providing a complete claim form.
- Sending the tax invoices/receipts to Allianz Global Assistance promptly, quoting the claim number when using the on-line claiming function.
- Providing the correct banking details – six (6) digit BSB and a maximum (9) nine digit account number. Direct credit into your bank account is the fastest option.

If I provide my banking details, how can I be sure that I have received my benefit?

Allianz Global Assistance will EFT funds directly into your account and send a benefit advice to tell you when the payment was processed and paid to you. You can check these details against your bank statement.

If I see a direct billing provider who then requires pathology or radiology tests, will the charges be direct billed?

Pathology and radiology charges are separate to the medical service provider charges. There are some pathologists and radiologist that do direct bill Allianz Global Assistance. However you may receive an account where the tests are not direct billed. You will need to submit these to Allianz Global Assistance for benefit payment as soon as possible.

Where do I obtain pre-paid and pre-address envelopes, or other OSHC Allianz Global Assistance forms?

These are available at your educational institution, Allianz Global Assistance OSHC member service point or visit our web site to allow forms to be downloaded. www.oshcallianzassistance.com.au
